location, floor and unit number and a general description and plat of each carport, if any, appropriately numbered,

Declarant reserves the right to amend the Map, from time to time, to conform the same according to the actual location of any of the improvements and to establish, vacate and relocate easements, access roads, easements and on-site parking areas.

3. Division of Property into Condominium Units. The tract of land described in Exhibit "A" hereto and the improvements thereon are hereby divided into the following fee simple estates:

   The separately designated units and the undivided interest in and to the General Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to each unit.

Declarant reserves the right to:

(b) combine a part of or combination of parts of the space within one unit with part or parts of space within one or more adjoining units; and

(c) divide into separate units, the space of one unit.

In the event Declarant performs any such acts, Declarant shall amend this Declaration to reflect such changes and to indicate the ownership of each such combined or divided unit.

4. Common Elements. Common elements are composed of General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements as defined in Paragraph 1 hereof. No reference thereto, whether such Common Elements are limited or general, need be made in any deed or other instrument, and reference is made to the provisions of Paragraph 8 of this Declaration.

5. Interest in and to the General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. Declarant is initially constructing 26 Units on the project site. The interests in the Common Elements as listed on Exhibit "C" attached hereto are based upon the initial 26 units on the project site. It is the intention of Declarant, however, to complete the project and to build 64 additional condominium units for a total of 90 units. The interests in the Common Elements as listed on Exhibit "E" attached hereto are based upon the completed project. In the event that Declarant builds the additional 64 units presently contemplated, (although Declarant specifically reserves the right not to do so), upon notice in writing by Declarant to the Homeowner's Association upon completion of such additional units, the percentage interests in and to the General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements shall automatically change to the percentages as set forth on Exhibit "E" without the necessity of any vote by the unit owners, lienholders or mortgagees approving such change.

6. Utilities. All expenses incurred for the service of electricity, gas and water for all units shall be regarded as Common Expenses and assessed in accordance with Paragraph 5 hereof, to the extent not separately metered and/or charged to the individual units.

7. Inseparability of a Condominium Unit. Except as provided in Paragraph 5 hereof, each unit, the appurtenant undivided interest in the General Common Elements and the appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall together comprise one condominium unit, shall be inseparable and may be sold, assigned, leased, devised or encumbered only as a condominium unit.
8. Description of Condominium Unit. Every contract for the sale or lease of a condominium unit prior to the filing of the record of the Map may legally describe a condominium unit by its identifying number and/or address as set forth for each unit on Exhibit "B" attached hereto, followed by the words "HARBOR EAST, a Condominium," with further reference to the Map thereof and the Declaration to be filed for record. Subsequent to the filing of the Map and the recording of the Declaration, every deed, lease, mortgage, deed of trust, will or other instrument may legally describe a condominium unit by its identifying number and/or address as shown on Exhibit "B", followed by the words, "HARBOR EAST CONDOMINIUMS, INC.," with further reference to the Map attached hereto as Exhibit "B". Every such description shall be good and sufficient for all purposes to sell, convey, transfer, encumber or otherwise affect not only the unit but also the General Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto. Each such description shall be construed to include a non-exclusive easement for ingress and egress to an owner's unit and use of all the General Common Elements, together with the right to the exclusive use of the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the unit described. The initial deeds conveying each condominium unit may contain reservations, exceptions and exclusions which the Declarant deems to be consistent with and in the best interests of all condominium unit owners and the Association.

9. Separate Assessment and Taxation - Notice to Assessor. Declarant shall give written notice to the Assessor of the County of Galveston, State of Texas, of the creation of Condominium ownership in this property so that each unit and the undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto shall be deemed a parcel and subject to separate assessment and taxation.

10. Ownership - Title. A condominium unit may be held and owned by more than one person in any real property relationship recognized under the laws of the State of Texas.

11. Membership, Voting, Quorum, Proxies.

(a) Membership. Any person on becoming an Owner of a Condominium Unit shall automatically become a Member of the Association. Such membership shall terminate without any formal Association action whenever such person ceases to own a condominium unit, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with HARBOR EAST CONDOMINIUMS, INC. during the period of such ownership and membership of the Association, or impair any rights or remedies which the Board of Directors of the Association or others may have against such former Owner or Member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto. No certificates of stock shall be issued by the Association, but the Board of Directors may, if it so elects, issue one (1) membership card to the Owner(s) of a condominium unit. Such membership card shall be surrendered to the Secretary whenever ownership of the condominium unit designated thereon shall terminate.

(b) Voting. Unit ownership shall entitle the Owner(s) to cast one (1) vote per unit in the affairs of the Association, which vote shall be weighted to equal the proportionate share of ownership of the Unit Owner in the Common Elements. Voting shall not be split among more than one (1) Unit Owner. The present number of votes that can be cast by the Unit Owners is 26. In the event that Declarant builds additional 64 units presently contemplated, the number of votes that can be cast by the Unit Owners is 90. The combined weighted votes calculated in accordance with Exhibit "C" or "E" shall equal 100X.
(c) Quorum. The majority of the Unit Owners as defined in Paragraph 1.b. shall constitute a quorum.

(d) Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Proxies may be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of each meeting.

12. Non-Partitionability of General Common Elements. The General Common Elements shall be owned in common by all of the owners of the units and shall remain undivided, and no owner shall bring any action for partition or division of the General Common Elements. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a limitation of the right of partition of a condominium unit between owners thereof, but such partition shall not affect any other condominium unit.

13. Use and Occupancy. After the initial sale or transfer by Declarant, all units shall be used and occupied for single family residence purposes by the owner, by the owner’s family or the owner’s guests; provided, however, that subject to the terms of Paragraph 30, an owner shall have the right to rent his unit upon such terms as he deems advisable, including rental for daily, weekly, and monthly terms; and provided further, if any mortgagee forecloses on any unit, said mortgagee shall have the right to rent said unit upon such terms as it deems advisable until the unit is sold. In the event of such sale, the buyer shall be subject to the terms of this Declaration of Condominium and the Bylaws of the Homeowner’s Association. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the right of Declarant to rent or lease units until their initial transfer to a third party is hereby specifically reserved.

Declarant and its employees, representatives, and agents may maintain a business and sales office, model units and other sales facilities necessary or required during the sales periods and may post any signs to further such sales as it deems necessary. Declarant may display signs on the Condominium Project for the purposes of selling or renting unsold units at any time. The Managing Agent, if any, may maintain an office in one of the units in the Condominium Project for the purposes of managing the condominium units within this Condominium Project.

In addition to the spaces sold along with each unit, there will be 6 spaces reserved for guest parking. The remaining spaces may be purchased by unit owners for $2,500.00 each and will then become part of the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the purchaser’s unit.

No Unit Owner shall park, store or keep any vehicle, except wholly within the parking space designated therefor, and any inoperable vehicle shall not be stored in a parking space or within the Common Elements in general. No Unit Owner shall park, store or keep within or adjoining the property any large commercial-type vehicle (dump truck, cement-mixer truck, oil or gas truck, delivery truck and any other vehicle equipment, mobile or otherwise, deemed to be a nuisance by the Board). No Unit Owner shall park, store or keep within or adjoining the property (except that Unit Owner’s designated parking space), any recreational vehicle (camper unit, motor home, truck, trailer, boat, mobile home or other similar vehicle deemed to be a nuisance by the Board). No Unit Owner shall conduct major repairs or major restorations of any motor vehicles, boat, trailer, aircraft or other vehicle upon any portion of the Common Elements. Parking spaces shall be used for parking purposes only.
14. Easements for Encroachments. If any portion of the General Common Elements encroaches upon a unit or units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. If any portion of a unit encroaches upon the General Common Elements, or upon adjoining unit or units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. Such encroachments and easements shall not be considered or determined to be encumbrances either on the General Common Elements or on the units.

15. Termination of Mechanic’s Lien Rights and Indemnification. No labor performed or materials furnished and incorporated in a unit with the consent or at the request of a unit owner or his agent or his contractor or subcontractor shall be the basis for filing of a lien against the unit of any other unit owner not expressly consenting to or requesting the same, or against the Common Elements. Each owner shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the other owners from and against all liability arising from the claim of any lien against the unit of any owner or against the Common Elements for construction performed or for labor, materials, services or other products incorporated in the owner’s unit at such owner’s request. The provisions herein contained are subject to the rights of the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association as is set forth in Paragraph 18.

16. Administration and Management; Managing Agent. The administration and management of this condominium property shall be governed by the Bylaws of HARBOR EAST CONDOMINIUMS, INC., a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference. An owner of a condominium unit, upon becoming an owner, shall be a member of the Association and shall remain a member for the period of his ownership. The Association shall be governed by a Board of Managers as is provided in the Bylaws of the Association. The Association may delegate by written agreement any of its duties, powers and functions to any person or firm to act as Managing Agent at any agreed compensation.

17. Records. The Board of Managers or the Managing Agent shall keep or cause to be kept records with detailed accounts of the receipts and expenditures affecting the condominium and its administration and specifying the maintenance and repair expenses of the Common Elements and any other expenses incurred by or on behalf of the regime. The records so kept shall be available for inspection by all owners at convenient hours on working days that shall be set and announced for general knowledge. All records shall be kept in accordance with good accounting procedures and shall be audited at least once a year by an auditor outside the Association.

18. Reservation for Access – Maintenance, Repair and Emergency Rights. There shall be the irrevocable right, to be exercised by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association, to have access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the General Common Elements thereon or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the General Common Elements or to another unit or units. Damage to the interior or any part of a unit or units resulting from the maintenance, repair, emergency repair or replacement of any of the General Common Elements or as a result of emergency repairs within another unit at the instance of the Association, shall be a Common Expense of all of the owners; provided, however, that if such damage is the result of the misuse or negligence of a unit owner, then such unit owner shall be responsible and liable for all such damage. All damaged improvements shall be restored to substantially the same condition of such improvements prior to damage. All maintenance, repairs and replacements as to the General Common Elements, whether located inside or outside of units unless necessitated by the negligence or misuse of a unit owner, in which case such expenses shall be charged to such unit owner, shall be the Common Expense of all the owners.

19. Easement for Access. Construction of Additional Units. The Declarant shall have the irrevocable right to have access for ingress and egress over the General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements to facilitate the construction of additional units upon Declarant's adjoining property including the right to transport materials, and laborors over the property and to install any utilities which would be necessary to complete construction of such units.

20. Acquisition of Adjacent Property. The Declarant specifically reserves the right in the exercise of its sole discretion to purchase any property adjacent, adjoining or abutting to the Condominium Project which may be or may become available.

21. Owner's Maintenance Responsibility of Unit. For purposes of maintenance, repair, alteration and remodeling, an owner shall be deemed to own the interior non-supporting walls, the materials (such as but not limited to, plaster, gypsum dry wall, paneling, wallpaper, paint, wall and floor tile and flooring, but not including the subflooring) making up the finished surfaces of the perimeter walls, ceilings and floors within his unit, including the unit doors and windows. The owner shall not be deemed to own lines, pipes, wires, conduits, or systems (which for brevity are herein and hereafter referred to as utilities) running through his unit which serve one or more other units except in common with other owners. Such utilities shall not be disturbed or relocated by an owner without the written consent and approval of the Board of Managers. Such right to repair, alter and remodel is coupled with the obligation to replace any finishing or other materials removed with similar or other types or kinds of materials of equal quality. An owner shall maintain and keep in repair the interior of his own unit, including fixtures thereof. All fixtures and equipment installed within the unit commencing at a point where the utilities enter the unit shall be maintained and kept in repair by the owner thereof. In addition exterior air conditioning condensing units shall be maintained and kept in repair by the owner thereof. An owner shall do no act nor any work that will impair the structural soundness or integrity of the building or impair any easement or hereditament (nor shall he make any changes to the individual patio or balcony appurtenant to his unit, if any). An owner shall also keep the areas appurtenant to his unit in a clean and sanitary condition and be responsible for maintenance or repairs to any limited common area of which he has beneficial use, in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. However, the Board of Managers shall have the right to do any necessary maintenance work or repairs to the Limited Common Elements if the owner fails to do so and assess the owner for the cost thereof. Further, each owner is prohibited from displaying any signs on or about his unit in such a manner that can be viewed from the exterior of his unit, except that Declarant may display signs on the Condominium Project for purposes of selling or renting unsold units at any time.
22. Compliance with Provisions of Declaration and Bylaws. Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of this Declaration and the Bylaws of the Association, and the decisions and resolution of the Association adopted pursuant thereto as the same may be lawfully amended from time to time. Failure and refusal after written notice to comply with any of the same shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due, for damages or injunctive relief or both, and for reimbursement of all attorneys' fees incurred in connection therewith and interest on all of such amounts at the highest lawful rate, which action shall be maintainable by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers in the name of the Association in behalf of the owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved owner.

23. Revocation or Amendment to Declaration. This Declaration shall not be revoked unless all of the owners and holders of any recorded mortgage or deed of trust covering or affecting any or all of the condominiums unanimously consent and agree to such revocation by instrument(s) duly recorded. Except as provided in Paragraph 3 hereof, this Declaration shall not be amended unless the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 67%, or more, of the Common Elements consent and agree to such amendment by instrument(s) duly recorded; provided, however, that the percentage of undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to each unit, as expressed in this Declaration, shall have a permanent character and shall not be altered without the consent of all of the unit owners expressed in an amended Declaration duly recorded except as provided in Paragraph 5 above, and provided further that revocation of this Declaration shall always require the consent of all of the owners. No amendment to this Declaration may alter or destroy a unit or Limited Common Elements without the consent of the owners affected and the owner's first lien mortgagee except as provided in Paragraph 5.

24. Additions, Alterations and Improvements of General and Limited Common Elements. There shall be no structural addition, alteration, decoration, repair, replacement, change or improvement of or to the General and Limited Common Elements without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers of the Association, or the prior approval of 51% of the owners. Such limitation shall not be applicable to the repair, replacement, maintenance or restoration of any Common Element.

25. Assessment for Common Expenses. All owners shall be obligated to pay the assessments, either estimated or actual, imposed by the Board of Managers of the Association to meet the Common Expenses.

Assessments for the estimated Common Expenses shall be due monthly in advance on the first day of each month. Failure to pay by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month shall require the imposition of a late charge of $5.00 per day after the 15th. The Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall prepare and deliver or mail to each owner a monthly statement of the owner's monthly assessment. In the event the ownership of a condominium commences on a day other than the first day of a month, the assessment for that month shall be prorated.

The assessments made for Common Expenses shall be based upon the cash requirements deemed to be such aggregate sum as the Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then the Board of Managers of the Association, determines is to be paid by all of the condominium owners, including as limited herein, the Declarant, expenses growing out of or connected with the maintenance, repair, operation, additions, alterations and improvements of and to the General Common Elements, which sum may include, but shall not be limited to expenses of management; taxes and special assessments until separately assessed; premiums for fire insurance with extended coverage and vandalism and malicious mischief with endorsements attached issued in the amount of the maximum replacement value of all of the condominium units (including all fixtures; interior walls and partitions; decorated and finished surfaces or perimeter walls, floors and ceilings, doors, windows and other elements or materials comprising a part of the units); casualty and public liability and other insurance premiums; landscaping and care of grounds; common lighting; repairs and renovations; removal of pollutants and trash collections; wages; utility charges; beautification and decoration; professional including legal and accounting fees, management fees, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers on behalf of the owners under or by reason of this Declaration and the Bylaws of the Association; for any deficit arising or any deficit remaining from a previous period; the creation of a reasonable contingency fund, reserves, working capital, and sinking funds as well as other costs and expenses relating to the Common Elements. Costs incurred in the construction of additional units by Declarant and other costs in connection therewith shall not be included in such aggregate sum.

The monthly assessments shall be made according to each Owner's proportionate or percentage interest in and to the Common Elements provided in Exhibit "F" attached hereto.

As of January 1st of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first condominium unit to an Owner other than the Declarant, the Association may set the monthly assessment for the next succeeding twelve (12) month period at an amount which shall not exceed 120% of the monthly assessment allowed for January of the preceding year. If the Managing Agent, or if there is none the Board of Managers, determines at any time during the calendar year that a greater increase of the monthly assessment is required to adequately perform the duties and responsibilities of the Association and pay all expenses thereof, then the Board may call a special meeting of the Owners. By the assent of a two-third (2/3) vote of the quorum of Owners, present at such meeting, the monthly assessment may be set at whatever level such Owners approve. The new assessment shall become the basis for future annual increases, using the 120% formula, as above outlined. As used herein the term "quorum" shall be defined as the presence in person or by proxy of the Owners with 51% of the ownership interest.

The Board of Directors shall have authority to lower the monthly assessment, if it seems feasible.

The omission or failure of the Board of Managers to fix the assessment for any period shall not be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the owners from their obligation to pay the same.

26. Owner's Personal Obligation for Payment of Assessments. The amount of Common Expenses assessed against each condominium shall be the personal and individual debt of the owner thereof. No owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward the Common Expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his unit. The Board of Managers or Managing Agent shall have the responsibility to take prompt action to collect any unpaid assessment which remains unpaid more than fifteen (15) days from the due date for payment thereof. In the event of a default by an owner in the payment of the assessment, such owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the rate of $5.00 per day on the amount of the assessment from the 16th day after the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees incurred to collect such assessment together with late charges as provided by the Bylaws of the Association. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Expenses shall be had in Galveston County, Texas, and maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing same. Additionally, in the event that the mortgage on a unit should so provide a default in the payment of an assessment shall be a default in such mortgage and if required by the mortgagee by written notice to the Association, the Board of Managers or Managing Agent shall give prompt notice of any default in payment of an assessment to the mortgagee.

During the development and sale period (which shall be defined as the period up to the time of the first annual meeting of the Association to be held within thirty (30) days after the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date upon which there has occurred the conveyance by the Declarant of 75%, in number of the units in the Condominium Project, or sooner if so elected by the Declarant) the Declarant shall be responsible for payment of the monthly Association assessment for the unsold units at the time the expense is incurred. In no event, however, shall the Declarant be responsible for the payment of any assessments for deferred maintenance, reserves for replacements, capital improvements, or other special assessments until after the first annual meeting of the Association.

So long as Declarant owns one or more of the units, he shall be subject to the provisions of this Declaration and hereby covenants to take no action which will adversely affect the rights of the Association with respect to assurance against latent defects in the Condominium Project or other rights assigned to HARBOR EAST CONDOMINIUMS, INC. by reason of the establishment of the Condominium Project.

27. Assessment Lien. All sums assessed but unpaid for the share of Common Expenses chargeable to any condominium unit shall constitute a lien on such unit superior to all other liens and encumbrances, except only for tax and special assessment liens on the unit in favor of any assessing unit, and all sums unpaid on the first mortgage or first deed of trust or record, including all unpaid obligatory sums as may be provided by such encumbrance. To evidence such lien, the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent shall prepare a written notice of lien assessment setting forth the amount of such unpaid indebtedness, the name of the owner of the condominium unit and the description of the condominium unit. Such a notice shall be signed by one of the Board of Managers or by one of the officers of the Association or by the Managing Agent and shall be recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Galveston County, Texas. Such lien for the Common Expenses shall attach from the date of failure of payment of the assessment. Such lien may be enforced by the foreclosing of the defaulting owner's condominium unit by the Association in like manner as a mortgage on real property subsequent to the recording of a notice or claim thereof. In any such proceedings the owner shall be required to pay the costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred. The owner of the condominium unit being foreclosed shall be required to pay to the Association the monthly assessment for the condominium unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall be entitled to a receiver to collect the same. The Association shall have the power to bid in the condominium unit at foreclosure or other legal sale and to assign, sell, lease, mortgage, hold, lease, mortgage, hold, lease, rent, and otherwise deal with the same. Any mortgagee holding a lien on a condominium unit may pay, but shall not be required to pay, any unpaid Common Expenses payable with respect to such unit, and such payment shall not be deemed a waiver of default by the unit owner.

28. Liability for Common Expense Upon Transfer of Condominium Unit is Joint. Upon payment to the Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then to the Association of a reasonable fee not to exceed $25.00, and upon written request of any owner or mortgagee or prospective mortgagee of a condominium unit, the Association, by its Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then by the financial officer of the Association, shall issue a written statement setting forth the amount of the unpaid Common Expenses, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for any advanced payments of common assessments, for prepaid items, such as insurance premiums, but not including accumulated amounts for reserves or sinking funds, if any, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within ten (10) days, all unpaid Common Expenses which become due prior to the date of making such request shall be subordinate to the rights of the person requesting such statement. The grantee of a condominium unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for the unpaid common assessments up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor; provided, however, that upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed $25.00, as is hereinabove provided, and upon written request, any such prospective grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then from the Association, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment, the date that such assessment becomes due, and credits for any advanced payments of common assessments, prepaid items, such as insurance premiums, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association. Unless such request for a statement shall be complied with within ten (10) days of such request, then such requesting grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien for any unpaid assessments against the subject unit. The provisions set forth in this paragraph shall not apply to the initial sales and conveyances of the condominium unit as made by Declarant, and such sales shall be made by the sale of all Common Expenses to the date of conveyance made or to a date as agreed upon by Declarant and Declarant's grantee.

29. Mortgaging a Condominium Unit - Priority. An owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his unit and the interests appurtenant thereto by deed of trust, mortgage or other instrument, but the lien created thereby shall be subject to the terms and provisions of this Declaration, and any mortgagee or other lienholder who acquires a unit through judicial foreclosure, public sale or other means shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration except as specifically excepted herefrom.
30. Right of First Refusal by Owners. In the event any owner of a condominium unit other than the Declarant shall wish to sell, lease, or rent a condominium unit and shall have received a bona fide offer therefor from a prospective purchaser, lessee or tenant, the remaining unit owners shall be given written notice thereof together with an executed or machine copy of such offer. Such notice and copy of offer shall be delivered to the Board of Managers who shall notify each of the owners of such notice and offer. One or more of the unit owners, acting individually or through another owner or owners, shall have the right to purchase, lease or rent the subject condominium unit upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the offer; provided, that during the twenty (20) days period immediately following the notice, written notice of such election to purchase, lease or rent is given to the selling, leasing or renting owner and a matching down payment or deposit is paid to an escrow agent. Closing shall take place within ten (10) days thereafter. If more than one election to purchase, lease or rent is made, the election prior in time shall take priority.

The right of first refusal herein provided shall not apply to leases, subleases or tenancies having a term of less than three hundred sixty-five (365) days or twelve (12) month period.

The Association shall not be responsible for procurement or maintenance of any insurance covering the contents or the interior of any unit for the liability of any owner for occurrences therein not caused by or connected with the Association's operation, maintenance or use of the Condominium Project.

36. Reconstruction or Repair. Reconstruction and repair shall occur as follows:

(a) In the event of damage or destruction due to fire or other disaster, or to condemnation by governmental authorities under power of eminent domain, the insurance proceeds or condemnation proceeds, as the cases may be, if sufficient to reconstruct the improvement(s), shall be applied by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, to such reconstruction, and the improvement(s) shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to such reconstruction, and the improvement(s) shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair and restoration of the improvements.

(b) If the insurance proceeds or condemnation proceeds, as the case may be, are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the improvement(s), and if such damage is not more than four-sevenths (4/7) of all the condominium units (the whole property), not including land, such damage or destruction shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, using the proceeds of insurance and proceeds of an assessment to be made against all of the owners and their condominium units. Such deficiency assessment shall be a Common Expense and made prorata according to each owner's percentage interest in the General Common Elements and shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair or restoration of the improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The delinquent owner shall be required to pay the Association the costs and expenses for filing the notices, interest on the amount of the assessment and all reasonable attorney's fees. (v) The balance remaining, if any, shall be paid to the condominium unit owner.

(c) If the insurance proceeds or condemnation proceeds, as the case may be, are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the damaged improvement(s), and if such damage is more than four-sevenths (4/7) of all of the condominium units (the whole property), not including land, and if the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 51% or more, of the General Common Elements do not voluntarily, within one hundred (100) days thereafter, make provisions for reconstruction, the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's president and secretary or assistant secretary, the entire remaining premises shall be sold by the Association, pursuant to the provisions contained in the Declaration, the Map and the Bylaws. The insurance settlement proceeds shall be collected by the Association, according to each owner's percentage interest in the General Common Elements, and such divided proceeds shall be paid into separate accounts, each such account representing one of the condominium units. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the condominium unit's designation and the name of the owner. From each separate account, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall forthwith use and disburse the total amount (of each) of such accounts, without contribution from one account to another, toward the partial or full payment of the lien of any first mortgage against the condominium unit represented by the apportioned amount of the proceeds derived from the sale of the entire property. Such apportionment shall be based upon each condominium unit owner's percentage interest in the General Common Elements. The total funds of each account shall be used and disbursed without contribution from one account to another, by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(i) through (v) of this paragraph.

(d) Each owner shall be responsible for the reconstruction, repair or replacement of the interior accessories and appliances of his unit, other than those accessories or appliances contained in the original specifications for construction of the Condominium Project. Each owner shall also be responsible for the costs of repair, reconstruction or replacement of any portion of his unit ascertained by the insurance adjuster to be damaged by his own negligence, misuse or the negligence or misuse by his family, guests, agents, servants, employees or contractors, and thus not compensated by insurance.
(e) If the owner representing an aggregate ownership interest of 51%, or more, of the General Common Elements adopt a plan for reconstruction, then all of the owners shall be bound by the terms and other provisions of such plan. Any assessment made in connection with such plan shall be a Common Expense and made prorata according to each owner's percentage interest in the General Common Elements and shall be due and payable as provided by the terms of such plan, but not sooner than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have full authority, right and power as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair or restoration of improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of each owner and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as is provided in Paragraph 27. In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such assessment within the time provided, and if no such payment is made, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association. The delinquent owner shall be required to pay to the Association the costs and expenses for filing the notice, interest at the rate of 8% per annum on the amount of the assessment and all reasonable attorney's fees. The proceeds derived from the sale of such condominium unit shall be used and disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(i) through (v) of this paragraph.

(f) The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 75%, or more, of the General Common Elements may agree that the General Common Elements are obsolete and adopt a plan for the renewal and reconstruction. If a plan for the renewal or reconstruction is adopted, notice of such plan shall be recorded, and the expense of renewal and reconstruction shall be payable by all of the owners as Common Expenses.

(g) The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 75%, or more, of the General Common Elements may agree that the condominium units are obsolete and that the same should be sold. In such instance, the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's president and secretary or assistant secretary, the entire premises shall be sold by the Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, free and clear of the provisions contained in this Declaration, the Map and the Bylaws. The sales proceeds shall be apportioned between the owners on the basis of each owner's percentage interest in the General Common Elements, and such apportioned proceeds shall be paid into separate accounts, each such account representing one condominium unit. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the condominium unit designation and the name of the owner. From each separate account, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall use and disburse the total amount (of each) of such accounts, without contribution from one account to another, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(i) through (v) of this paragraph.
37. Personal Property for Common Use. The Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, may acquire and hold for use and benefit of all of the condominium unit owners, real, tangible and intangible personal property and may dispose of the same by sale or otherwise. The beneficial interest in any such property shall be owned by all of the condominium unit owners in the same proportion as their respective interest in the General Common Elements, and such interest therein shall not be transferable except with a transfer of a condominium unit. A transfer of a condominium unit shall transfer to the transferee ownership of the transferor's beneficial interest in such property without any reference thereto. Each owner may use such property in accordance with the purpose for which it is intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other owners. The transfer of title to a condominium unit under foreclosure shall entitle the purchaser to the beneficial interest in such personal property associated with the foreclosed condominium unit.

Each owner shall register his mailing address with the Association, and notices or demands intended to be served upon an owner shall be sent by mail, postage prepaid, addressed in the name of the owner at such registered mailing address. All notices, demands, or other notices intended to be served upon the Board of Managers of the Association or to the Association shall be sent certified mail, postage prepaid, to Manager's office at 8227 Stewart Road, Galveston, Texas 77551, or at such other address of which the Board may be furnished from time to time.

40. General Reservations. Declarant reserves the right to establish easements, reservations, exceptions and exclusions consistent with the condominium ownership of the Condominium Project and for the best interest of the condominium unit owners and the Association in order to serve the entire Condominium Project.

this Declaration or the Bylaws attached hereto as Exhibit
"D" in any manner by which such amendment would violate the "FNMA Conventional Selling Contract Supplement" of the Federal National Mortgage Association, as amended, and as they may be amended from time to time, unless any proposed amendment which might be considered violative thereof shall be consented to in writing by each and every mortgage holder of all units in the project.

42. Name Reservation. The Declarant does hereby reserve the right to use the name "HARBOR EAST CONDOMINIUMS, INC." for any future development of condominiums on adjoining, adjacent or abutting property. Any additional development, up to the completion of a total of 86 units shall be part of this initial phase. Any additional phase (portion of development) shall exist as a separate condominium project and act independent from other phases.

43. General.

(a) If any of the provisions of this Declaration or any paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or the application thereof in any circumstance be invalidated, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Declaration, and the application of any such provision, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in any other
